

Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

If you are weak and ailing, think what it would mean, to you, to recover as quickly as Mrs. Navy did. For more than 50 years, this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, has been used by thousands of weak and ailing sufferers. They found it of real value in relieving their aches and pains. Why suffer longer? A remedy that has relieved and helped so many, is ready, at the nearest drug store, for use, at once, by you. Try it, today.

Twenty-Five Years Ago.

From The Taney County Times, 1891.

The cold weather of the last week caused many people hereabouts to turn their pigs into pork. In fact it has been a hog killing time.

A heavy fall of snow came on Saturday night and gave the people of Taney county a touch of genuine winter.

There was a pleasant little dance on Friday night at the home of Mr. J. I. Clark, in honor of Miss Eliza and Miss Rose Clark, who went to Springfield on Monday.

S. W. Fain has been appointed postmaster at Proteem, vice J. W. Owen resigned.

The Salvation Army has gone and the ridge is wicked as ever. It takes more than a big drum and a pleading voice to get some people into Heaven.

The shoe supper last night at the Helptry school house was a great success. The attendance was large, the cause good and the grub plentiful. About $6.00 was netted for the purpose of buying a stove for the school house.

A statement of the public lands open to settlement in this part of the state shows that Taney county has 150,000 acres yet open to settlement, although in 1887 she had nearly 400,000 acres subject to homestead.

An increase in pension has been granted to J. M. Sullenger.

A county medical society was organized on January 3 1891.

J. W. Trout has an article in the paper from Kirbyville boasting for the cooperative woolen and cotton mill at that place, and says that everybody can have stock in the concern, if they did not have the money, to come and work out the price of their stock. They would allow a man 10 cents an hour, and a man and team 15 cents an hour when there was any hauling to do.

An item in regard to the meeting of the legislature at Jefferson City says that W. F. Tuttle of Pettis county was elected speaker of the house, and that Senator Vest had been nominated by the Democratic caucus to succeed himself as United States Senator.

Owing to an error in the date, the notice of the annual meeting of the Bank of Bradleyville in this issue of the paper again. The date of their meeting is February 5, instead of January 10, as we published it. We got that notice and the one for the Taney County Bank here mixed up and made them both for the same date, but the official notice in another column, is now straight.

Marriage Licenses

The following marriage licenses have been issued by Recorder U. G. Johnson since our last report.

Lonnie V. Bookout, of Walnut Shade, and Myrtle M. Wood, of Taneyville.

Christie Clemons and Etta Jones, both of Taneyville.

We acknowledge receipt of a card from Vernon C. Todd of Branson, who with his family is spending the winter at Pasadena, California, ordering the Republican sent to them at that place. Mr. Todd says they are enjoying the flowers and oranges and the driving over the wonderful roads they have built in that country. He says it is the roads and not the soil that has made California what it is, and that raw land along these highways is worth $500 per acre. He also says that Taney county can double the value of her land in six months by building good, permanent roads, and we agree with him.

Mrs. Una Keltner, of Nixa, District Deputy President of the State Rebekah Assembly, came in Tuesday evening to assist in the installation of officers of the local lodge. The following officers were installed N. G., Mrs. J. H. Ray; V. G., Miss Lula Everett; Treas., Miss Lena Everett; Sec'y., Mrs. J. H. Parrish.

J. H. Parrish was taken suddenly ill at the Ben Stone farm north east of town on Monday of this week, where he and Mrs. Parrish have been staying and looking after things during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Stone in Oklahoma. Mr. Parrish had a very severe chill Monday morning, and was brought to town that afternoon. He is reported better at this time.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Taney County Bank was held at the banking house in this place on Monday of this week. All the old officers and directors were re-elected and Mr. J. C. Nance of Kisse Mills was added to the board of directors.

Chadwick State Bank kindly solicits a part of your patronage. Four per cent paid on time deposits and three per cent on checking accounts. Absolute safety first—and last. Come in and get better acquainted. You may like us. D. E. Cheuvront, Pres't; J. B. Farrar, Cashier. 8 4t

J. N. Ray was down from Taneyville Monday of this week to attend the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Taney County Bank, and to look after other business at the county seat.

To The Teachers

It has been a long time since I visited most of you, and I am now thinking how soon your schools will begin to close. Some of the shorter terms have already closed. Should any of your schools close before the expiration of your contract be certain that the district has used all the teacher's fund.

The State Superintendent has recently apportioned to this county $370 21, the amount held up by the State Auditor at the time of the regular apportionment, this sum will amount to ten or eleven dollars to the average district.

The last part of your school should be the best part, then don't let it lag. Vary your work in order to arouse close interest. plan your work and put ginger into your recitations. It is a good time now to have Parents Day—try it.

What are you doing these long winter evenings? It's a fine opportunity to do a lot of good reading and sober thinking. Why not discuss with your larger pupils some of the interesting things you read about.

Keep sweet and keep your troubles to yourself. Don't worry; worry isn't real, it is only an imaginary thing. Be natural and if you are not satisfied with it try to improve yourself. Try to be just the kind of teacher that you would like to have if you were one of the pupils.

Yours sincerely,

JOHN W. BENNETT,
County Superintendent.

Rock Port Mutual Co's On The Boom

During the past year the Missouri Mutual Ins. Co's of Rock Port, which insure buildings and contents, automobiles and farm property against loss or damage by fire lightning, tornadoes, cyclones and windstorms issued 5,502 policies, making a total of $5,072,157 insurance, which is "going some." This has certainly been a prosperous year for these companies.

C. E. SMITH, Osaka, Mo.

Dr. E. T. Anderson, one of the oldest settlers in this part of the country died at his home in Kirbyville last Friday and was buried in the Snapp grave yard, just across the river from this place, on Saturday. Several from here attended the funeral.

M. C. Grant was up from Kisse Mills Saturday of last week and made this office a call. This was the first time Mr. Grant had been to Forsyth in more than a year.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

State of Missouri, County of Taney, ss.
In the circuit court, April term, 1916.
Taney County Bank, Plaintiff, vs.
J. N. McDonald, Geo. A. Roberts and S. A. Day, Defendants.

At this day comes the plaintiff herein by its attorney, D. E. McConkey, and files its petition and affidavit, alleging among other things, that defendant, J. N. McDonald, is not a resident of the state of Missouri.

Whereupon it is ordered by the clerk, in vacation, that said defendant be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against him in this court, the object and general nature of which is to attach the lands and property of said defendant to secure the payment of a certain promissory note executed by J. N. McDonald, Geo. A. Roberts and S. A. Day to Bank of Forsyth, and that unless the said J. N. McDonald do and appear at this court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the court house in the town of Forsyth, in said county, on the 24th day of April, 1916, and on or before the first day of said term, unless longer time be given by the court, answer to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published according to law, in the Taney County Republican, a newspaper published in said county of Taney, for four weeks successively, the first insertion to be at least thirty days before the first day of said next April term of this court.

A true copy from the record.
Witness my hand and the seal of the circuit court of Taney county, this 11th day of January, A. D. 1916.
J. C. DAVIS, Circuit Clerk.
(Seal)
First published Jan. 13, 1916. 21-6.

A Candidate for Congress

Hon. David W. Hill, of Poplar Bluff, Missouri.

Former Speaker David W. Hill of Poplar Bluff, Mo., who has been favorably mentioned by his hosts of friends in this community in connection with the Republican nomination for Congress in the Fourteenth District, is a candidate, having decided to make the race a short time ago, and is planning a campaign covering every one of the sixteen counties.

He was born at Hilliard, Mo, February 25, 1871, and has lived in the district all his life. From the time he was five years old until his eighteenth birthday, he lived on the farm of his stepfather. His own father (a Union soldier) died before he was born. He worked on the farm, taught school, paid his own way through school and was licensed as a lawyer in June, 1899. In that year he married, and has two daughters one nine and one fourteen years of age, both of whom want to go to Congress also.

Even before he became of age he became interested in politics, the old fashioned Republican kind, and the state committee discovered his strong campaigning ability, with the result that the committee has used him time and time again to spread the gospel in many sections of the state.

He was elected city treasurer of Poplar Bluff shortly after becoming of age, then chosen prosecuting attorney, and afterwards, when not a candidate, was nominated for representative in the state legislature and elected, and within this, his first term, was honored by being elected as Speaker of the House of Representatives, the first Republican Speaker of the State of Missouri in many years. His record as speaker, it has been said by members of both political parties, made him one of the best officers ever occupying this high office in the state. In 1907 he was again the Republican choice for Speaker. After that he was nominated for Circuit Judge in his district, but declined to make the race.

David W. Hill is one of those men who is so pronounced in his advocacy of everything which helps to build up home industries that he will be recognized in Washington, where he has a large circle of acquaintances, as one of the denendable statesmen when it comes to considering questions which may affect his own people here in the Fourteenth congressional district.

He has traveled over every section of the district and knows better perhaps than any of us how little has been done toward legislating for the folks at home, the people in the country where he grew to manhood. He has made a careful study of conditions now existing in this district because of the demoralization of the democratic party, the party of broken promises.

His personality is such that he will command respectful attention whenever he steps up to champion the cause of the citizens of every county in the Fourteenth district. There will be no levying of war taxes in time of peace at Washington, if Mr. Hill is sent there as the most capable man for championing the interests of those he represents.

The Fourteenth district needs men of David W. Hill's high character on the floors of Congress, men who believe in fighting to the last for those protective principles which have been lost sight of those who have been misguided by the bp Ship of State, with "Watchful Waiting" as the slogan.

Besides practicing law, Speaker Hill owns a farm, is engaged in raising live stock, and is a member of the Angus Cattle Breeders Association.

As a Republican he has always been a persistent advocate of the party's policies favoring a protective tariff. We Missourians who were lukewarm a few years ago when the tariff was an issue, now realize that we made mistakes in not insisting that our favorites for office come out more emphatically in favor of a protective tariff, which means more money for the home merchant, the home farmer, the home worker and the home mechanic.

In Mr. Hill the voters of the Fourteenth district have a man whom they can rely on to fight their battles at Washington and who will make a vigorous campaign both in the primary for the nomination and afterwards until the final vote is counted. He is deserving of the Republicans and with him leading the hosts of battle the Fourteenth district is sure to be represented by a Republican.

Dr. Baldwin accompanied by his nephew and Mrs. Alva Hull and Mrs. Geo. Felton autoted from Springfield last Thursday through the storm. That is they autoted as far as Houseman's store north of town, when they had some trouble with the machine and walked from there in home, arriving in the city about eight thirty. They were driving J. W. Reese's new car home for him, and the trouble with the machine proved to be that they had run out of lubricating oil.

J. W. Owen, of Alvin, Texas, a former resident of this county, came in last Friday, called here by the death of his brother, H. F. Owen of Proteem, and left Saturday morning for Proteem where he will visit for a few days. Mr. Owen left this county about seven years ago.

Mrs. J. A. Tollerton, of Springfield, who has been in town for the past week visiting her father, J. H. Parrish, and other relatives and friends, left Monday morning for her home, but was called back from Branson by a telephone message on account of the sudden illness of her father.

George Root left Friday morning of last week for Branson where he went on business.
